MEET THE ARTIST:

From Key West to the Mid West, Emily has been performing as a solo vocalist with her acoustic guitar since 2013. Her earthy style and eclectic song selections have prompted comparisons to Tom Waits and Joni Mitchell. Michigan raised in a musical family, Emily studied music throughout grade school, was self-taught on the acoustic guitar, and received group and private vocal training as an adult. From Billie Holiday to Bobbie Gentry, Emily pulls from folk, rock, jazz, reggae, American roots, and more.

With a work background in ecological conservation, historic tall ship sailing, and an Interdisciplinary Humanities degree from Michigan State, Emily is inspired by respect for social consciousness and Mother Earth. In 2017 she released her first original single, "The 10¢ Bottle Law," a tongue-in-cheek plea for expanded recycling programs. She hopes to reach her audiences with a free spirited, down-to-earth appreciation for the richness of life.

TESTIMONIALS:

"Emily Springsteen is a talented vocalist and musician. Key West's resident Hippie Chick sings beautifully and with soul. She mixes a nice blend of classics from Janis Joplin to The Grateful Dead in her live sets."

-- Ben Solove, 104.9 FM, The X Key West

"Emily Springsteen is...delighting audiences wherever she plays. In a relatively short time, Emily has become one of the busiest musicians in Key West."

-- Daryl Brooke, Owner of Grateful Guitar, Key West

"...Her organizational skills were invaluable at the regular open jam sessions and Full Moon Parties with me, at the Shrimp Rd. Bar & Grill in Stock Island Marina Village. She's awesome sauce."

-- Gary Ek, The Soundman From Hell, 104.9 FM, The X Key West

"Emily has a stockade of music piled in her set list, with a lean toward the hippie and socially conscious singer/songwriters..."

-- Bucky Montgomery, Correspondent, Florida Weekly, Key West Edition
